My Book of PASTING

If your child can use scissors and glue fairly well, then this book will build on that foundation.

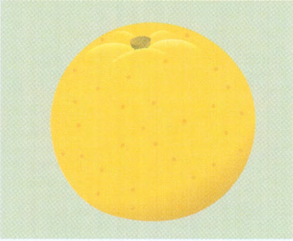
Use this book to help your child practice cutting and pasting to improve fine motor skills.

1

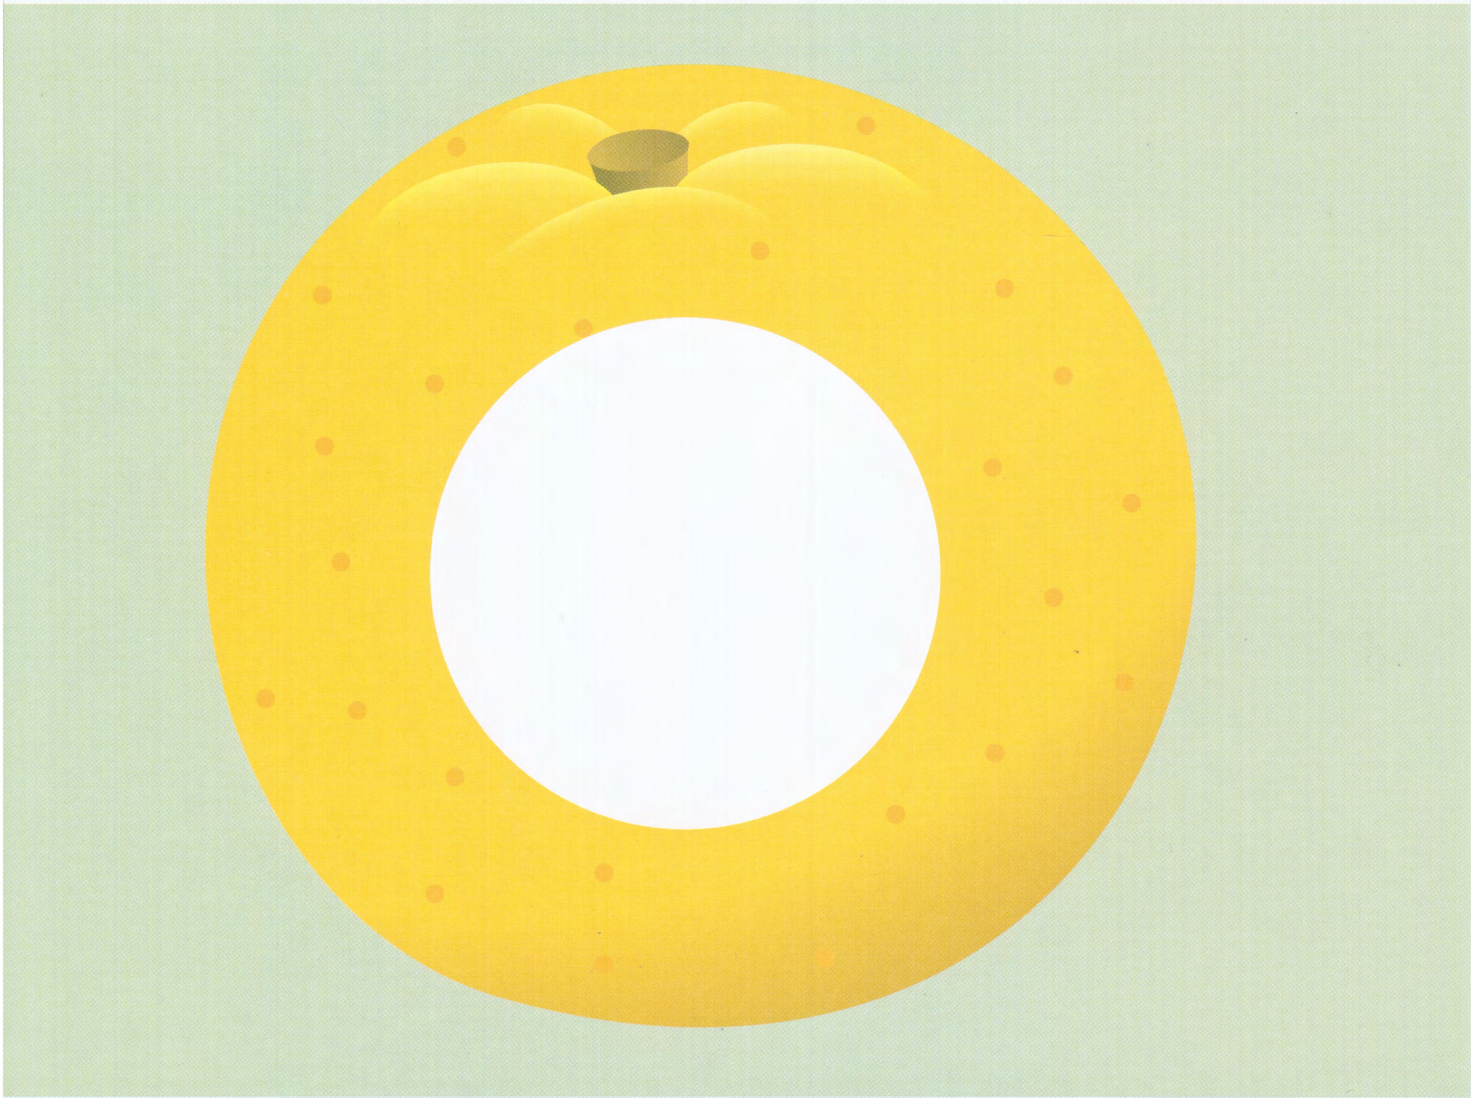
Grapefruit

To parents

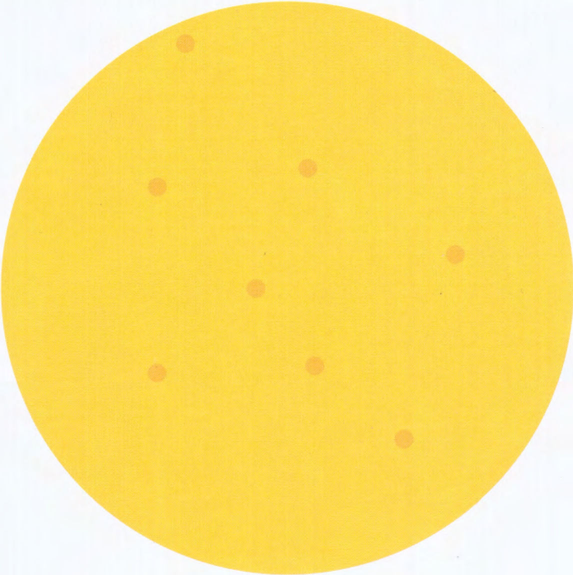
Your child will learn how to judge the shape of a part and paste it onto an appropriate place in the illustration. Since the white area for pasting is a little smaller than the cutout part, it will not stand out if your child cannot paste the part accurately. Please cut off the lower portion of the paper to make it easier for him or her to cut.



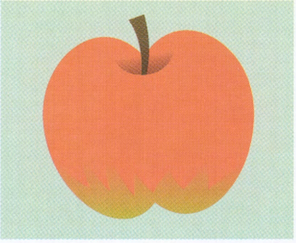
- Cut out the part at the bottom and paste it onto the illustration above to complete the picture.



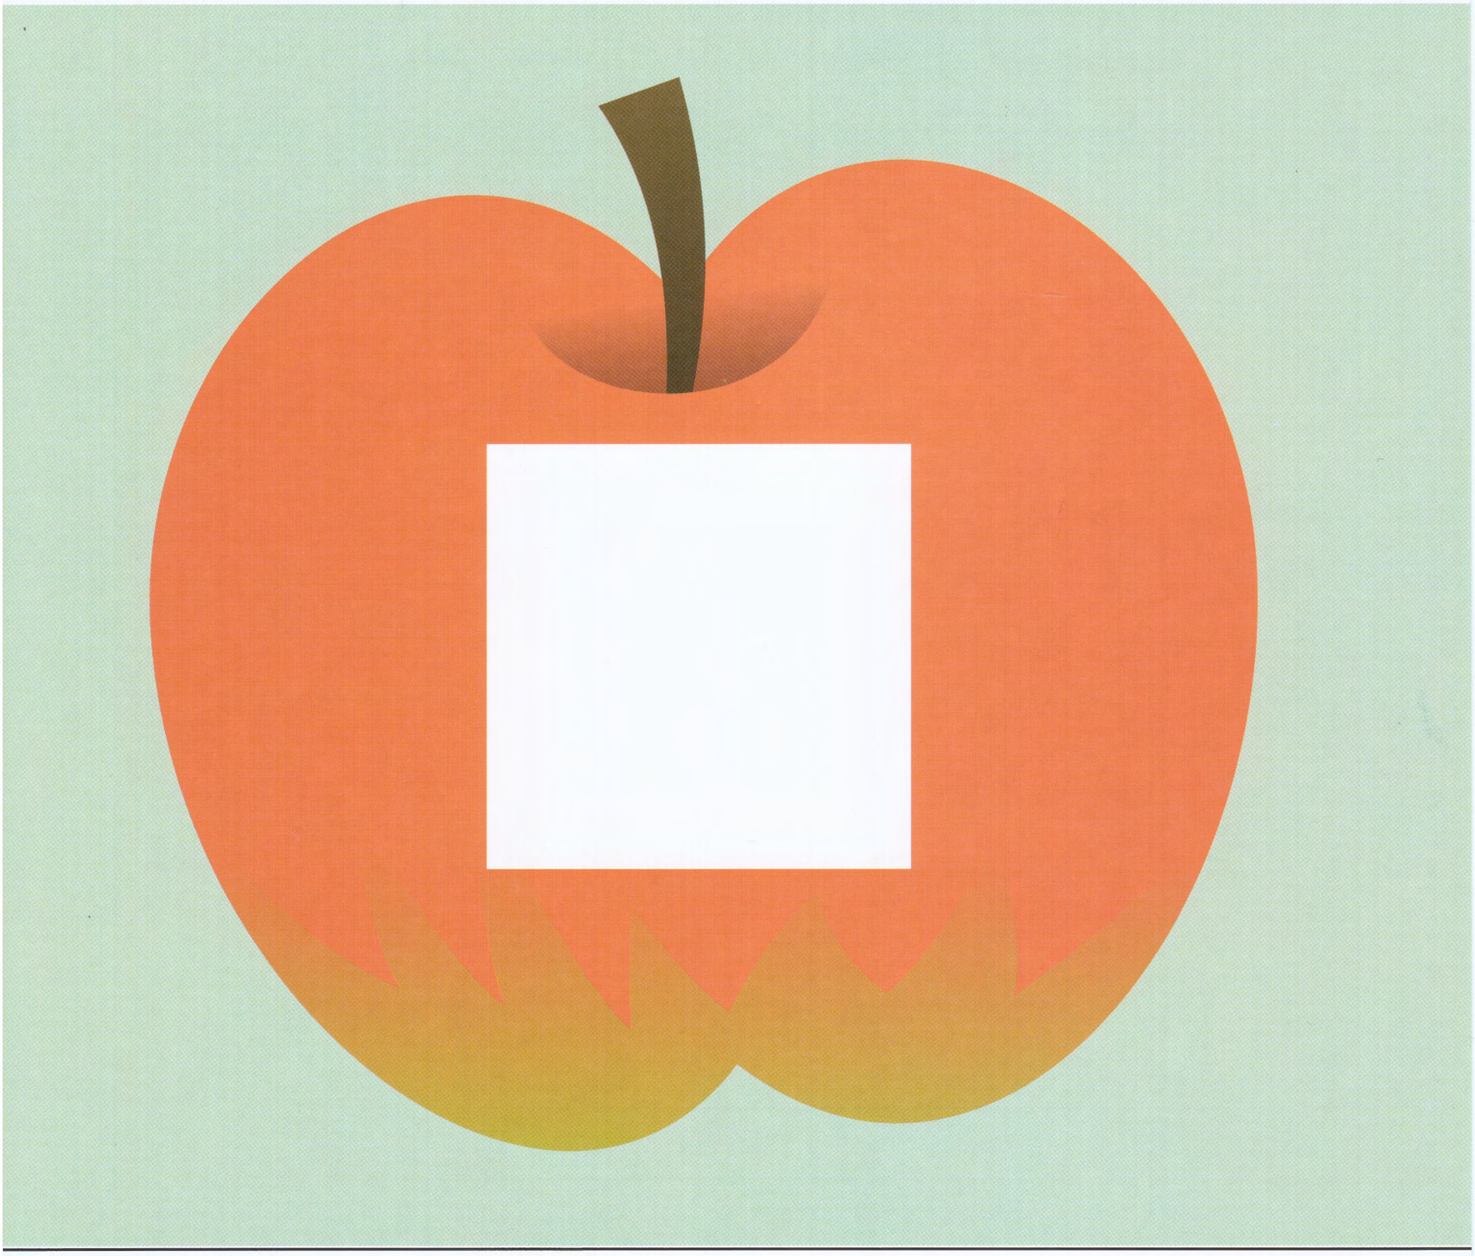
*Parents, please cut along this line for your child.

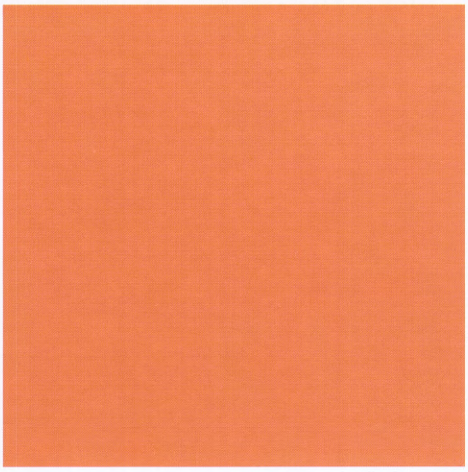


2 Apple

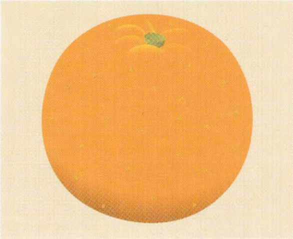


- Cut out the part at the bottom and paste it onto the illustration above to complete the picture.

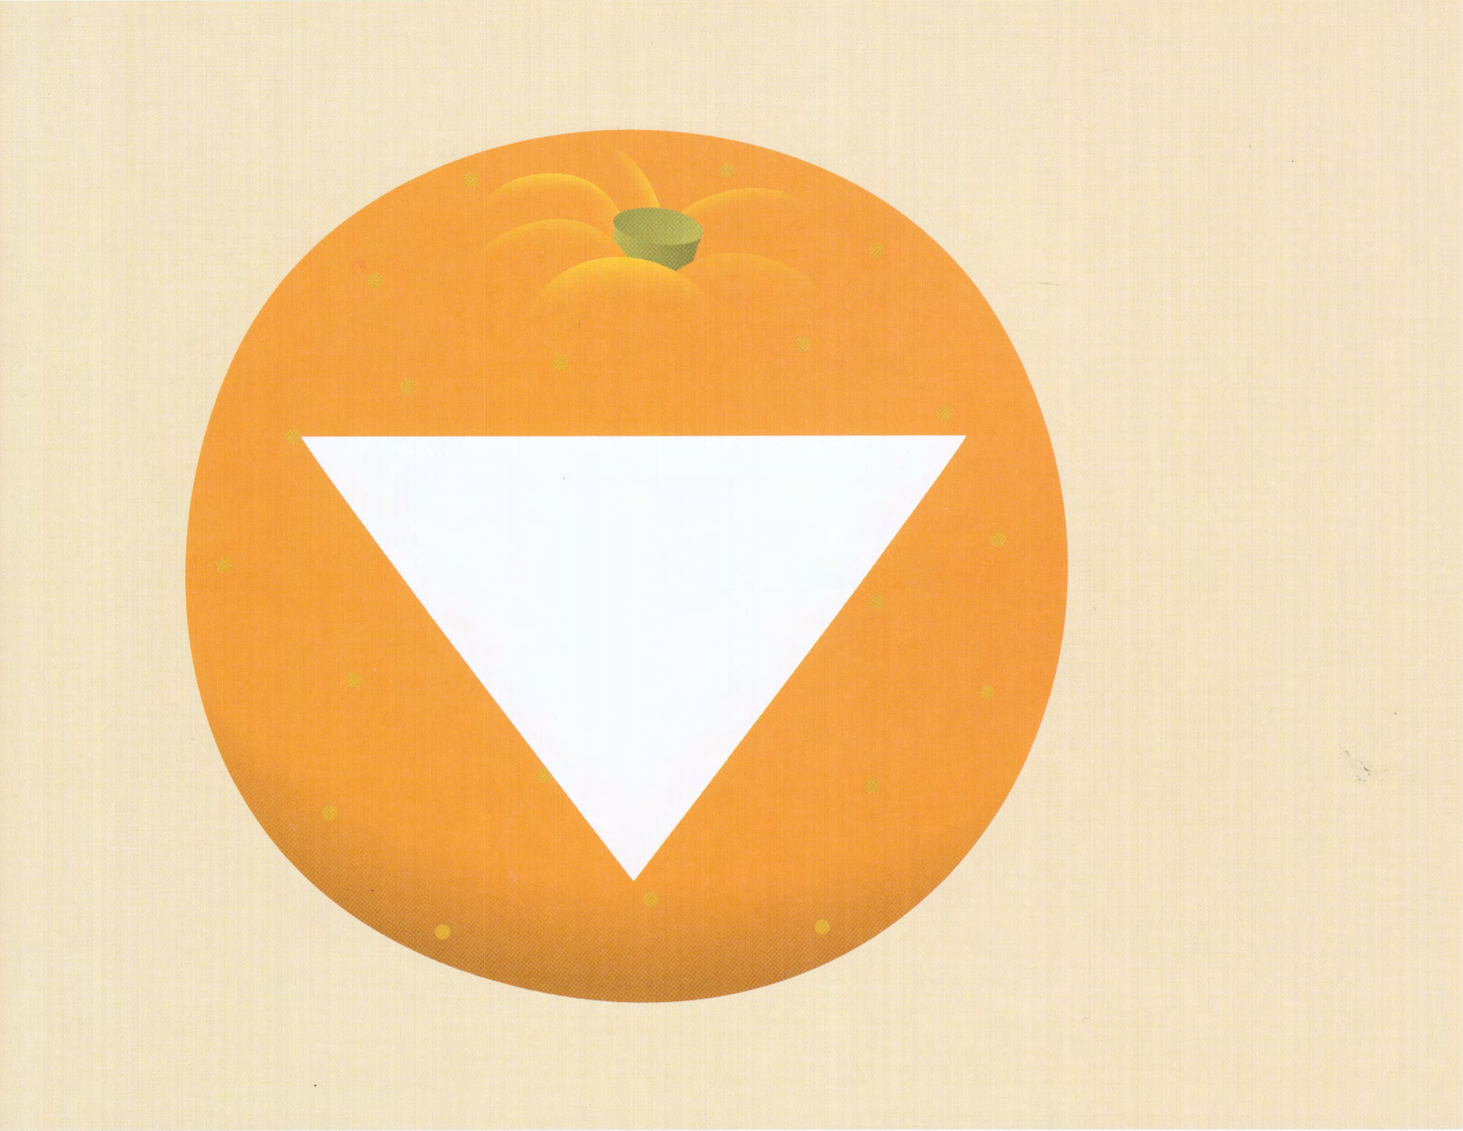


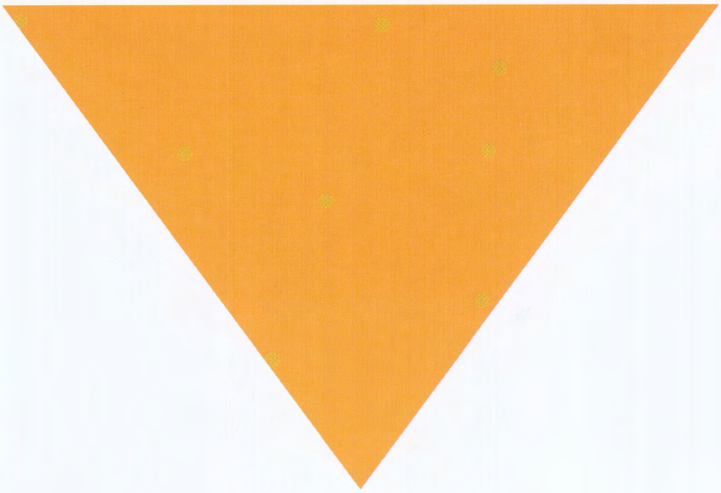


3 Orange



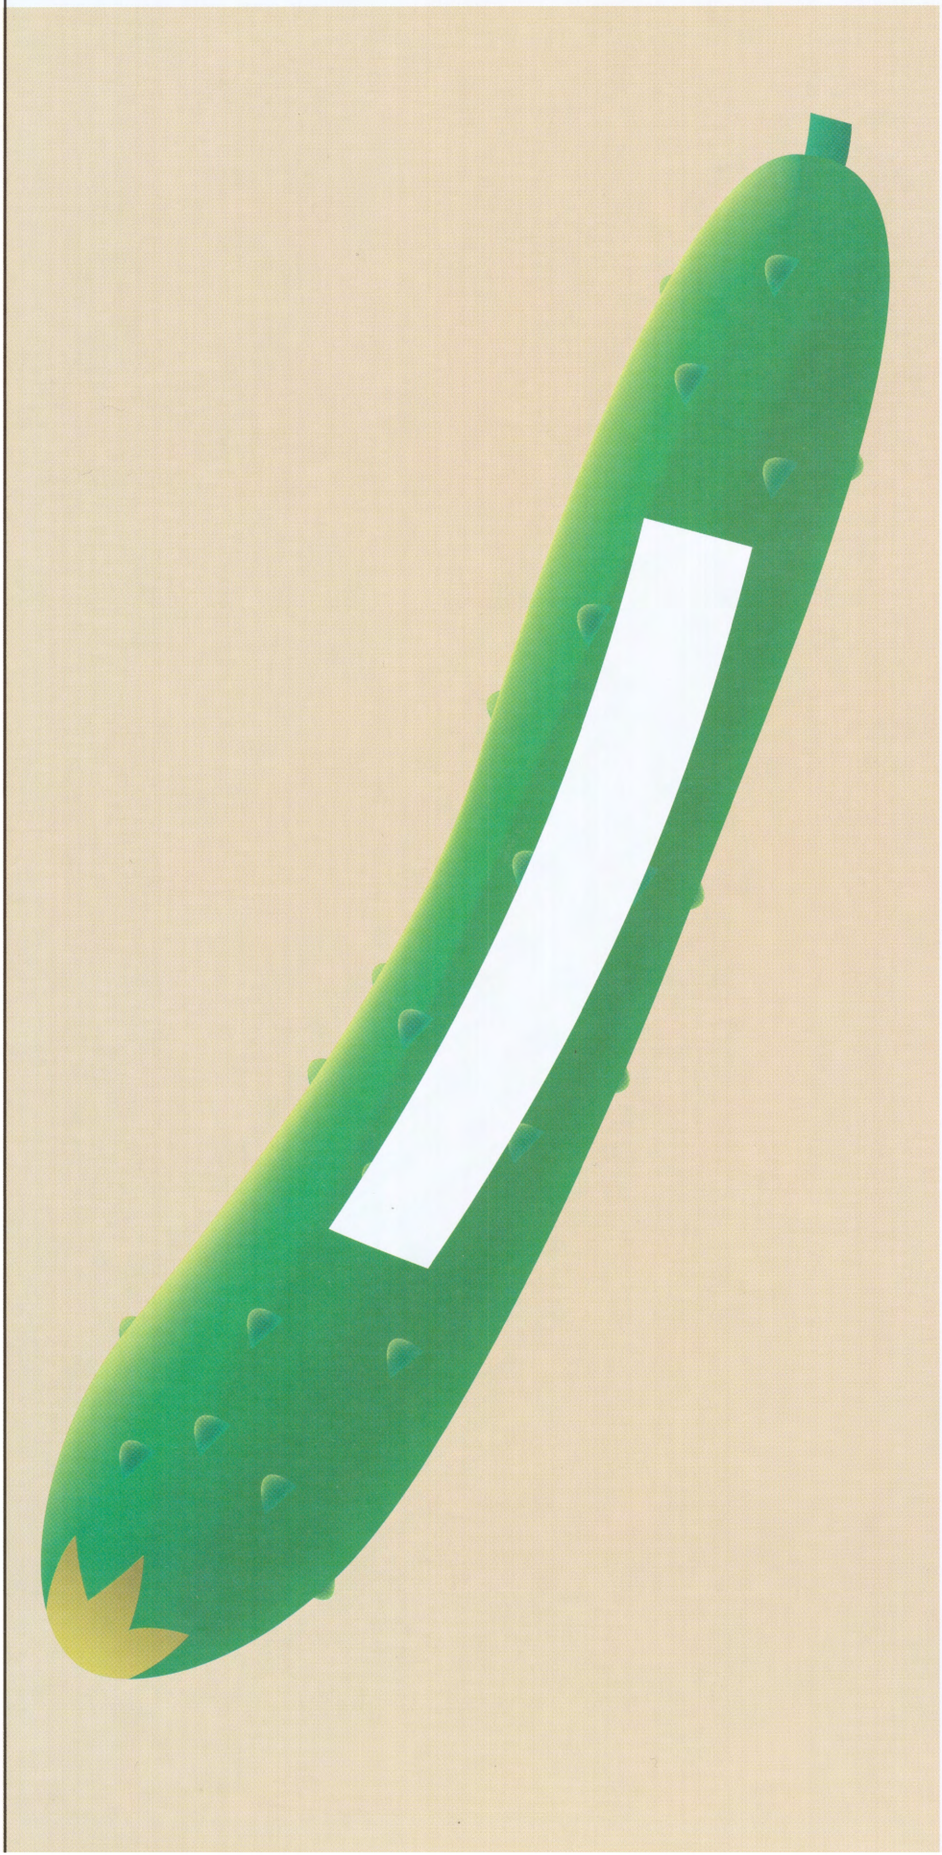
- Cut out the part at the bottom and paste it onto the illustration above to complete the picture.

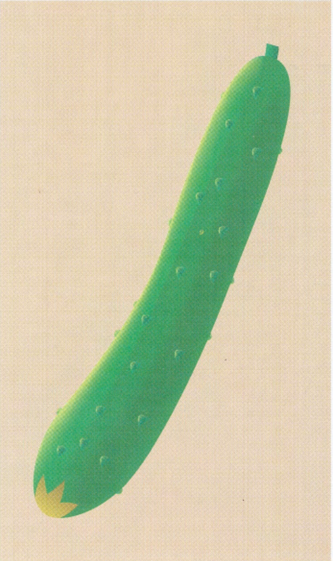




4 Cucumber

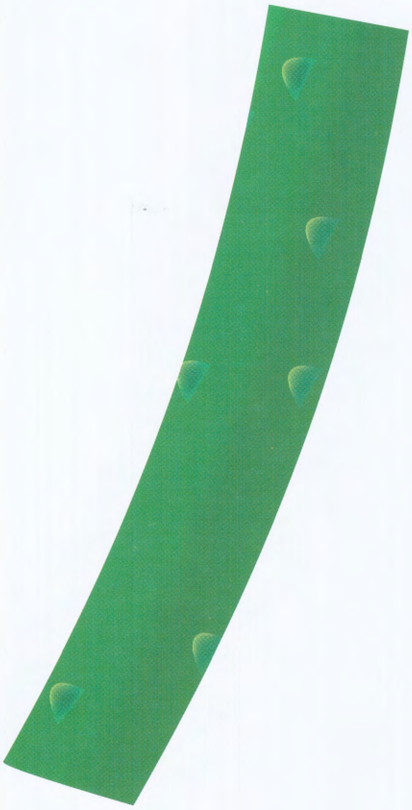
■ Cut out the part on the right and paste it onto the illustration on the left to complete the picture.





To parents

The shape of this part may be difficult for children to cut out precisely. It is not a problem if what your child has cut is a little askew. Offer lots of praise for his or her effort in learning to cut and paste. If your child seems to have difficulty cutting out the part, you can offer to help and then encourage him or her to paste it onto the illustration.

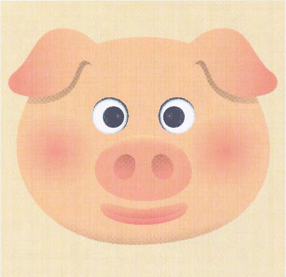


5

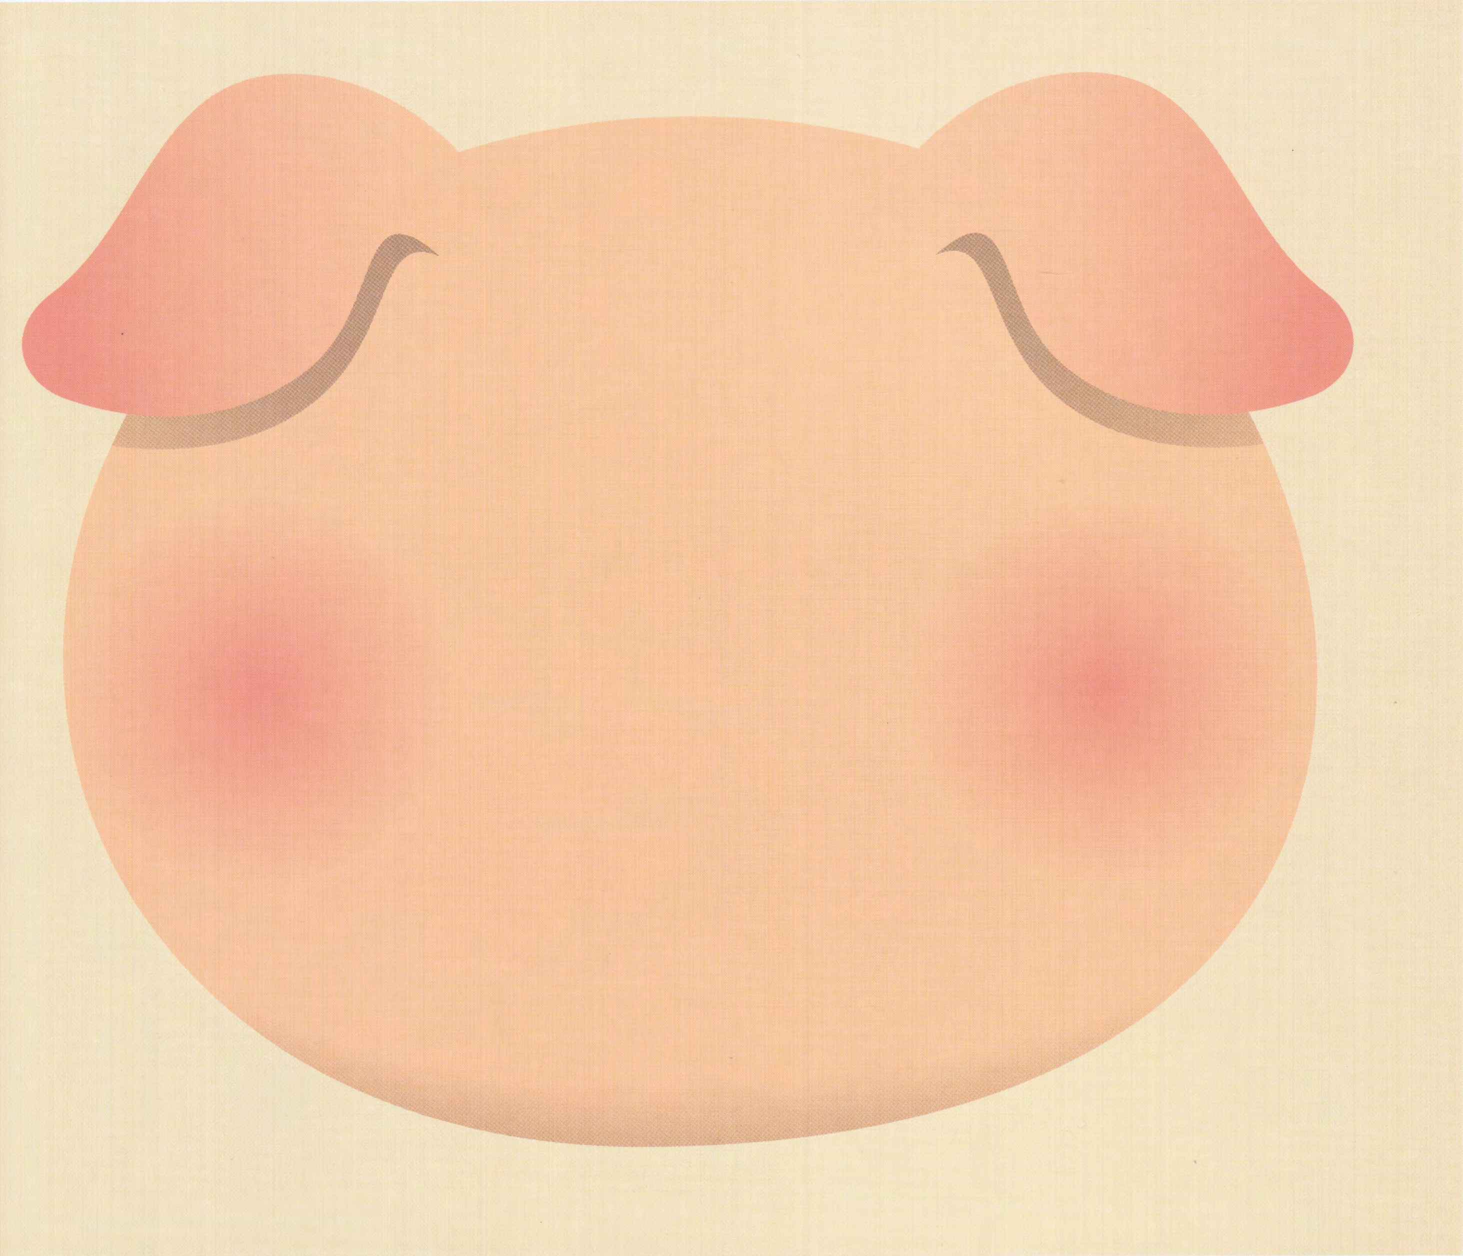
Pig

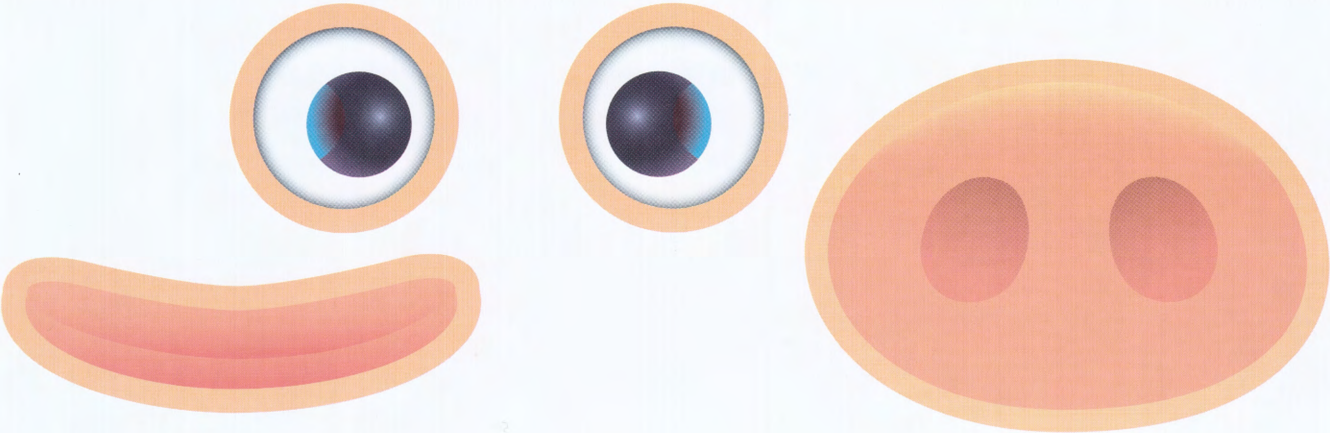
To parents

Starting with this page, your child will learn to arrange the facial features of animals. You can encourage him or her to try and put the parts onto suitable places to see what the face will look like before pasting them. Offer lots of praise for his or her effort.

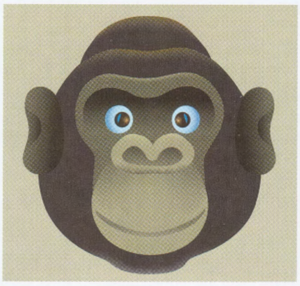


■ Cut out the parts at the bottom and paste them onto the pig's face.

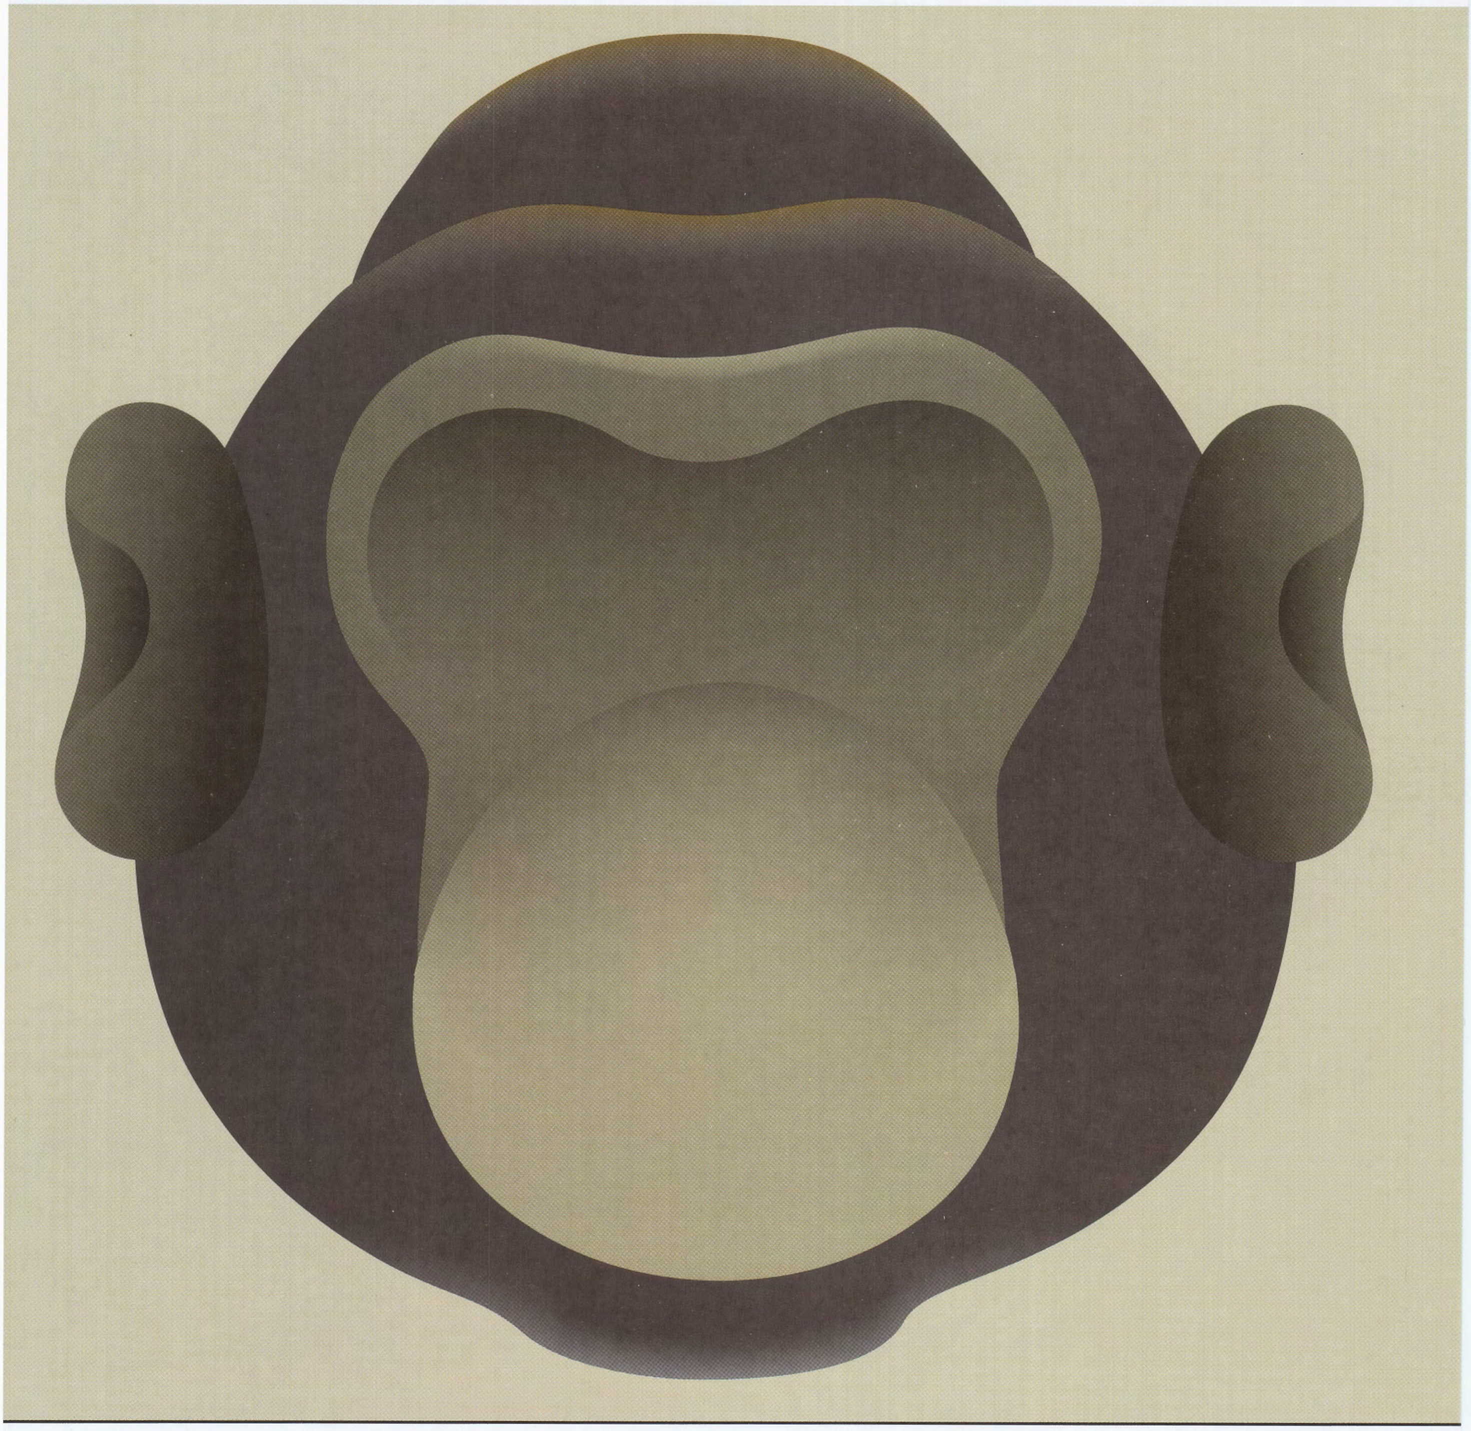


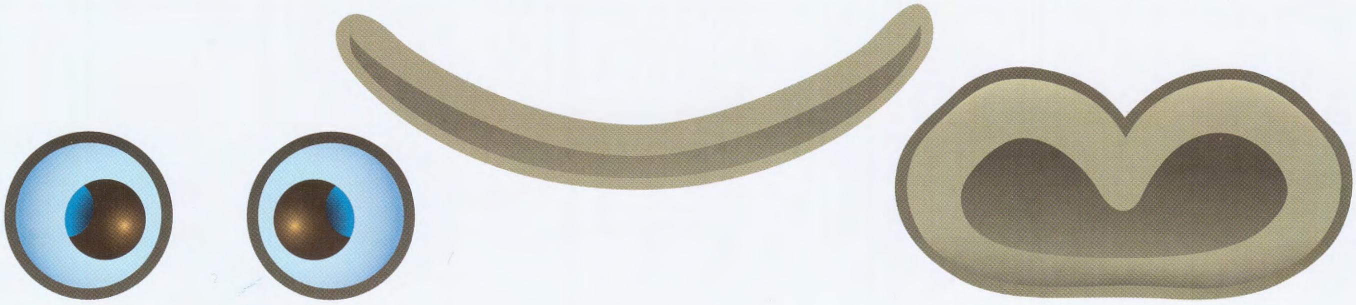


6 Gorilla



Cut out the parts at the bottom and paste them onto the gorilla's face.





7
